

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movement of Many People, Newberrians and Those Who Visit Newberry

There will be a dance at the Legion hall Friday night, the 12th. Carolina Syncopators will furnish the music.

Miss Janie Chalmers, who has been seriously ill, is improving, we are glad to report.

Mr. J. T. Ward had to return to the Columbia hospital Thursday afternoon, he having been there advised by a John Hopkins specialist.

There will in all probability be fair weather for the ball game on Friday afternoon, as it carries insurance. That is nearly always the way it happens. The Newberry-Clemson game promises to be good baseball.

A little blaze in the home of Mr. Frank Hough in Nance street at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon called out the fire department. It didn't amount to anything.

Chautauqua and baseball divided honors for a week. Now the thoughts will commence for commencement.

Baseball enthusiasts are of three classes—fans, fiends and cranks. Get in your class. Outsiders are in a hopeless minority.

Some people try to prove so many things by the Bible. There is no reason to think that the devil was a lawyer in disguise just because verse 23 of the 10th chapter of St. Luke says: "And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him." Many are so ignorant of the Bible that they don't know whether it was spring, summer, fall or winter when Adam and Eve occupied the Garden of Eden.

There must be a good many girls and women of various ages, sizes and "builds" who are inclined to consumption, judging by the "hectic flush" on their faces.

B-dam creek was once a great and good place to fish. We haven't heard from it lately, as a fishing point.

Everybody ought to have his or her place in a community. Some are worth more to it; others are worthless.

There will be an ice cream festival at Bush River school Friday night to which the public is invited.

In mentioning the "probably oldest living Confederate veteran," the name of Mr. D. P. Ward of Whitmore should head the list, as far as our information now extends. Mr. Ward will be 92 years old this coming July.

Mrs. W. A. Koon and Mrs. Holt of Columbia accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Campsen to Newberry Monday afternoon to attend the burial of little Harry H. Campsen.

Sam Williams, who carved his fellow colored citizen, Jim Ruff, for disarranging his domestic affairs, was released on bond and returned last week to his work in North Carolina. His unlawful rival for affection was slashed pretty badly but is getting over it.

Man is born unto trouble as the sparks fly upward, or something like that, but is woman who is fearfully and wonderfully made—some of them—which is more apparent as the thermometer climbs.

Mr. S. H. McLean, district passenger agent of the Southern railway headquarters in Columbia, was in Newberry Tuesday on railroad business.

Mr. J. C. Swygert of Peak was in the city on a short business trip. Miss Gertrude Habenicht and the Misses Milner of Columbia were guests last week of Mrs. C. A. Freed.

Mr. R. C. Sligh paid a visit last Saturday to his daughter, Mrs. Frank Sutton, in Anderson. He found her improved in health, her many friends will be glad to learn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Summer, Jr., on their way from Columbia, are spending some days with his father, Mr. J. H. Summer. They will leave next week for Greenville, where he will conduct insurance business.

Mrs. Oscar Peterson returned this week from Charleston. She was met in Columbia Mr. Peterson. Mrs. Peterson did not get to see "Magnolia Gardens," as the gates had been closed.

Mr. J. L. Dicker is also on the force helping the well policemen in the absence of the sick ones.

Mr. Furman T. Dominick and family have moved back to their cottage on the hill just below the residence of Mrs. Dominick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Lindsay, at which home they have been staying during the occupancy of their home by Mr. and Mrs. Olin J. Adams, who recently moved to Mr. Tom Neel's place near Mr. Adams' brother, Mr. T. L. Adams.

Misses Grace Eula Boozer and Mary Aurelia Nance of Newberry are among the graduates to receive the Bachelor of Arts degree at the approaching commencement of Columbia college.

Dr. T. C. Skinner has been assisting Rev. E. V. Babb and the First Baptist church of Newberry in a series of evangelistic services. The Herald and News has this to say of Dr. Skinner: "If the Methodists or the Episcopalians had Dr. Skinner they would make him a bishop." We can add that the Baptists made a bishop of him many years ago and have found him to be one of the best bishops in the South—Baptist Courier.

The community market is extending its usefulness. Like The Herald and News it is now twice a week, only Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The services are continuing at Bethlehem, colored, Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. Baton, being assisted by Rev. Coax of Greenwood.

Luther Longshore of the navy is spending his furlough with his father, Mr. Robert Longshore, near Bush River church.

What might have been a serious matter was narrowly averted Tuesday night. As the people were leaving the chautauqua tent Mr. Jno. T. Cromer, on going to his car saw the rear seat on fire. He and friends assisting him were just in time, as a little more and there might have been an explosion. It was well it happened at the close of the program, as automobiles were thickly and numerous parked on the grounds. Whether some cigarette smoker was careless with his match or some miscreant did the deed is not known.

Hear the Hawaiians and the fun specialists tonight, Thursday, as it is the last of chautauqua—until next year. There will be a crowd on hand tonight.

Considering the high price of gasoline, oil, etc., and the wear and tear of automobiles, tires and accessories in general, it is a man of very small calibre who kicks against the prices charged by taxi drivers. The charge of 25 cents a passenger from residence to station is not only reasonable but very cheap.

There will be service at the Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock by Bishop Finlay.

A substantial man, living in a rented house, says he is going to move to another city to better his condition, as rent is entirely too high and houses too scarce in Newberry, which he says, truly, is keeping this city from growing and in the back ground.

What we have said all along is more houses and cheaper rent in Newberry. We want to see the city grow and expand.

Mr. C. F. Templeton returned on Tuesday from a business trip to Greenville, having gone to that city Sunday.

The white and red roses will be in evidence Sunday, Mother's day.

Prof. James L. Dennis of Atlantic City, N. C., is in the city.

Mr. Guy Brown of Greenville was in Newberry this week.

There arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klettner, Jr., on Wednesday night, a fine little girl weighing seven and a half pounds. Congratulations are now in order to this happy young couple, who are just beginning to realize what it is to have "a baby in the house." This baby has been named Mary Frances, for both grandmothers.

Col. and Mrs. W. H. Hunt, Miss Fannie McCaughn and Mr. Floyd Bradley are expected home tonight.

Thursday, after an extended stay at Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. Bradley left the springs a little ahead of the others so as to spend a couple of days with his brother Tom in Knoxville. We will all be mighty glad to see these popular Newberry folk back in their respective places.

Mr. A. A. Cleland has sold the Fant cottage in Caldwell street to Mr. M. C. Moore.

Mrs. J. C. Copeland and baby of Columbia, visiting relatives at Gary's, spent Wednesday in the city with her brother, Mr. Jno. C. Goggans, Jr.

Rev. E. V. Babb, and Messrs. Jno. M. Kinard and I. H. Hunt will attend the Southern Baptist convention which convenes in Jacksonville, Fla., next Wednesday.

Mr. G. D. Brown, Jr., was in the city Thursday returning to his headquarters in Columbia. We always like to "see George." And so do many others.

Mrs. Robert Holmes and sister, Miss Pauline Fant, returned last week from Fayetteville, N. C., accompanied by their little nephew, Oliver Holmes, Jr.

Eugene Duckett killed a mad dog Thursday morning in Cannontown in front of Wm. Davis' home. The dog which belonged to Wm. Davis, Jr., had bit several dogs in Sunset park and had been shot and wounded. This dog had been suffering from the bite of a stray mad dog, and the unknown dog was also killed, Tuesday afternoon in Cannontown.

In his chautauqua address, "Traitors to Justice," Judge Kavanaugh the eminent criminal court judge of Chicago, said: "I visited your jail in this city this afternoon, and find it to be a model institution in every respect and an asset to Newberry, which the people should be proud of. It is properly managed. The prisoners are not petted but are treated humanely and made to know that they are in prison." This is a high compliment to the sheriff and the jailer, coming from this distinguished jurist, who is chairman of the national committee to investigate crime in this country.

Mrs. Jas. N. McCaughn representing Newberry at the music festival in Spartanburg last week.

It wouldn't be chautauqua time in Newberry if it didn't rain some.

Mr. Jim Morrie of Chester was a Wednesday-Thursday visitor here.

The painting season is on in this city. Paint makes such a wonderful difference in the looks of things, helping nature to make the surroundings more beautiful. There is lots of paint at the hardware stores in Newberry. Get paint.

Mr. R. H. Swittenberg is letting the Newberry Lumber company have the benefit of his valuable services temporarily.

Mr. R. R. Bruner of Orangeburg will be with the Coca-Cola plant in Columbia on and after the first of June. This will not prevent his coming to Newberry on his little visits, it only brings him nearer. R. R. don't stand for railroad every time, but Mr. Bruner is a rapid transit business worker.

Clemson-Newberry Game Friday

A vast throng of fans will doubtless be at college park tomorrow (Friday) afternoon when the Clemson Tigers meet the Newberry Indians here in a very crucial game. Newberry has won eight games and lost two while Clemson has won nine and lost one. This shows how close the state championship race has become. This will be the last game of the season on the local grounds. The contest will begin at 4 o'clock. Newberry will play Carolina in Columbia next Wednesday.

Word comes from Darlington, says Tre State, that among the speakers there will be present (at the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans of South Carolina on May 17 and 18) Maj. J. F. Caldwell of Newberry and Mrs. R. D. Wright, recording secretary general. The Herald and News reporter has seen Maj. Caldwell within the past couple days and he looks in good trim for the meeting, but Mrs. Wright will probably be unable to attend, owing to her illness.

In its write up of the commencement of the Columbia Theological seminary, The State of Thursday, among other things, says: "In his charge to Dr. (E. D.) Kerr, Dr. Sprunt impressed upon him the seriousness of being interested with the teaching of the Bible to young men," etc. "Dr. Kerr responded with an able address on the subject, 'The Place of the Study of Original Languages in Theological Education.'"

PROCLAMATION

CLEAN-UP and PAINT-UP

Come on, let's put things in order. Our whole city can and should be made as clean and orderly as its cleanest home. Then we will have a safer, happier, healthier city.

Ambition in its highest conception is to dream big dreams and make them come true. The splendid ambition to have a city clean and beautiful is soon to become a reality by the cooperation of all the people, through the various organizations of the city.

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor, and with the hearty approval of many far-seeing and zealous citizens, we hereby proclaim the week of

May 15th to 20th

as the Opening Week of a Continuous

Clean-Up and Paint-Up Campaign

We need this thorough cleaning and renovation. It is the sensible thing to do—for the health, safety, thrift, pride and happiness of all our people.

It is everybody's job. Every man, woman and child will be expected to help. Let there be no slackers.

W. W. CROMER,
Mayor, City of Newberry.
